After an intense final in Berne Switzerland on Sunday May 21 Klaus Thomsen was named the World Barista Champion 2006.

Klaus made a perfect presentation in the finals and won a clear victory. His espressos and cappuccinos were near perfect and the signature drink was applauded big time. Klaus' signature drink is named Coffee Symphony. It consists in 3 estate coffees brewed in 3 different ways and presented in 3 layers: An espresso shot plus a layer of coffee pannacotta topped with coffee foam from the CoE Colombia II 2005 winner El Aguacate.

During his preparations and the competitions Klaus has had strong support from his coach Peter Dupont, who is legend barista and roastmaster at Estate Coffee & Copenhagen Roaster.

The City of Copenhagen has now 4 passionate World Barista Champions working on a daily basis in different speciality coffee functions and in 4 different companies. Together with other coffee passionates they are creating a vibrant speciality coffee bar sector and a lot of good energy. You can enjoy this by visting anytime. Up coming Speciality Coffee and Barista events in Copenhagen are, Nordic Barista Cup September 28-30 2006 (nordicbaristacup.com) and the World Barista Championships in June 2008.
